About Our Mission

The Faine House is a community of leaders empowering young adults aging out of foster care, and/or on the brink of homelessness, to choose a path to independence. We restore life, hopes and dreams dulled or lost due to trauma and scarcity. From a home-like residence in Orlando, we offer 18 to 23-year-olds guided support including physical and mental wellness, transportation options, financial literacy, educational and occupational development. Founded by former NFL player and Philanthropist Jeff Faine, along with Business Executive and Philanthropist Jeff Sharon, The Faine House now operates as an independent 501c3 with Jeff Faine as Board President.

Research shows that up to 46% of youth exiting foster care experience homelessness by the age of 26, so the need for a safe place is urgent. You can make an important difference in the lives of our young adults. Join us for an impactful evening benefiting The Faine House.
